ALIENISTS IGNORE TERRANOVA GIRL AND HER LAWYER

Armed with Court Order They Examine the Prisoner Despite Her Protests and Without Letting Her Counsel Know of Plans.

Two of the members of the special lunacy commission appointed in the Josephine Terranova case, reinforced by a third alienist, took snap judgment on the accused girl's counsel to-day and examined the prisoner for an hour and a half in her cell without the knowledge or consent of the lawyer.

At 8 o'clock this morning when Judge Palmieri was just sitting and Dr. William Mabon, the medical men on the commission, accompanied by Dr. John E. Weeks, another student of mental disorders whom they had the worst since she was brought to ent or might officially protest. It present or might officially protest. It looks to me like taking an unfair advantage of an ignorant, defenseless girl. Although her defense has nothing to fear by a dozen examinations, I objected to another because she had already undergone several such ordeals, and becase I regarded the attempt of the State to break off this trial when it had almost reached its conclusion as improper and was caused by the threatened extinction of one of their chief experts Dr. Allan McLane Hamilton. He testi or Richard Freusser, the one-armed man was mixed with a sancegament was answered as a small was answered and a small was answered by the complete and the compl

AND FRESH EGGS

Burglars Have an Easy Time Opening Parsonage on Well-Lighted West Side Corner.

Keep Posted! 18,557 World Wants During First 5 Days of This Week. 4,779 More Than Same 5 Days Last Year, 5.839 More Than Any Other Newspaper on Earth Printed During Same Period. PROVED BY ACTUAL COUNT.

SUGGESTIONS FOR WELL-KNOWN OCEAN VOYAGERS. By Maurice Ketten.

I'M NOT SICK-I NEVER WAS SICK! TO EUROPE

BIG COP ANSWERED BURNS'S PERSONAL

Advertised for Matinee Companion Fifteen Years Old to Be His Secretary.

LITTLE GIRL WANDERER FALLS EXHAUSTED.

PATERSON, N. J., May 26.-Ada laie, was found asleep lying near the usquehanna Railroad tracks tired and ungry. She was turned over to the P. C. C. and taken to their rooms, where she will be held until her story an be investigated.

The little girl said she formerly orders at the correct section. Parker, thirteen years old, of Blooming can be investigated.

The little girl said she formerly worked at Bloomingdale, but because of ill-treatment she ran away on Thursday night and walked to this city. She almost fell from exhaustion last night at the point where she was found. She said she was formerly an inmate of the State Home for Girls at Trenton and was given over to a family in Bloomingdale by the matron of the home.

MAN BEHEADED IN BROOKLYN

Apparently Dazed, and Ground to Pieces.

Burns is forty years old, a man of Zahner yelled and danced a frenzied on the sidewalk. She started for Madione in the trunk was broken.

Body Taken to Station-House.

said Carbury, with a girish my name is Hayden-Gracie (Carbury is six feet tall, and chews tobacco.)

The was of fair complexion, and chews tobacco. The was well dressed in each tall, and chews tobacco. The was under arrest Burns went was under arrest Burns went. He was under arrest Burns went in a bite serge suit. In his pockets were $2 in change and some cards to turn him losse, in the had rented the Jay street.

Station. The man's age was apparently station. The man's age was apparently sixty. He was of fair complexion, for the young man had evidently planned to die unknown. He had dressed himself in a new suit of black clothes, and the storking counter. I his underwear was fresh. He had cut the initials from the band of his hat and every mark from his clothing.

When the died what I was doing.

The young man had evidently planned to die unknown, He had dressed himself in a new suit of black clothes, and the storking counter. I his underwear was fresh. He had cut the littials from the band of his hat and every mark from his clothing.

When the died what I was doing.

The young man had evidently planned to die unknown, He had dressed himself in a new suit of black clothes, and the storking counter. I his underwear was fresh. He had cut the littials from the band of his hat and every mark from his clothing.

When the died what I was doing.

The young man had evidently planned to die unknown, He had dressed himself in a new suit of black clothes, and the storking counter. I his underwear was fresh. He had cut the littials from the band of his hat and every mark from his clothing.

When the died what I was doing.

The young man had evidently planned to die unknown, He had dressed himself in a new suit of black clothes, and the storking of the died what I was doing.

The young man had evidently planned to die unknown. He had dressed himself in a new suit of black clothes, and the storking of the storking of the policy man had evidently planned to die unknown.

The young man had evidently planned to die unknown. He ili man. He arrested the motorman on a laborer.

CAR IN CHARGE OF NEW MOTORMAN KILLS LITTLE GIRL.

WOMAN ROBBED AND GARROTED IN MADISON AVE

Stopped on the Tracks, Held Up Under the Glare of Electric Light at Seventy-second Street.

to his forehead and sent a bullet through Pending identification the police took his brain. He staggered and fell, and the headless body to the Gates avenue shortly after he arrived at Roosevelt station. The man's age was apparently Hospital he gasped and died.

have been Tracy.

Policeman Appleby was standing half a block away and saw the killing of the hands were hard, indicating that he was ear and Schroeder put on the brakes. He was not quick enough and the child went down.

The car stopped and a crowd began

NOT A SHOPLIFTER, RICH WOMAN SAYS

Merely Took Stockings by Accident in "Pell-Mell Bargain Rush."

was arraigned in Court to-day and duction by the use of the mains of the state of the mains of the state of the state

"I then tried to work my way back to the stocking-counter gift. While I was struggling in the crowd the clock struck 5 and I remembered that I had other orders to send home. Without thinking and without knowing I had the stockings in my hand I ran upstairs to the dairy department and ordered some eggs and butter. I gave the clerk $3 and told him I would come back for my change. I hurried over to the liquor department to order some claret. On my way I met a friend who asked me why I was carrying stockings. That was the first time I realized what I was doing.

"Just then I noticed a young woman following me. I become confused and started back to the stocking counter. I started back to the stocking counter. I test emburrassed and but the stockings in my bag until I could get to the counter and have the clerk send them up for me. Before I reached the counter I was arrested.

Mrs. Ferris almost fainted in the store and at first gave her name as Anna Mc-Laughlin, of No. 17 West Tenth street. She sent for Dr. J. Milton Mabbett, who lives at No. 17 Fifth avenue, and then her real name and address were learned. Her lawyer has declared that if any attempt is made to continue the prosecution he will fight to the limit, and infimates that a suit for damages may be entered later.

DENIED SWEETHEART, SHE DIED BY GAS.

The car stopped and a crowd began to gather. Policeman Cook called an ambulance from Lincoln Hospital, and when he saw the crowd menacing the motorman was saved from an infuriated crowd by police reserves from the Alexander avenue station.

The girl was cut in two by the car. The motorman, a green man, was artiested.

The little girl had been sent to get the car stopped and a crowd began to gather. Policeman Cook called an ambulance from Lincoln Hospital, and when he saw the crowd menacing the motorman he sent in a call for the reserves.

A hundred men lifted the car while a Dr. Terry crawled at risk of his life beneath and brought out the poor torn body.

Four women fainted as Terry threw a white cloth over the girl. Several or the reserves accompanied the motorman to the end of the line, where he was away she turned on the was arrested.

To-Morrow's Sunday World.

She Will Annihilate Submarine Boats!

The astonishing invention of Louis Nixon, designer of modern battle-ships. A boat that will locate submerged destroyers and wipe them out of existence by a sudden shot from overhead. The most wonderful achievement in modern sea warfare.

> How Much Is Your Neck Worth?

If you are a pretty girl, ught to be worth a lot. Bu nere are thousands of beauties villing to risk life and limb for few dollars, as a recent Want 'Ad." has proved.

Meanest Thief On Earth!

All thieves are mean; but Bill' Hickey was "the limit." He met his death recently, and the story of his career is all the nore interesting.

Women Police in New York! What Would They Do?

A nearby city is considering adding women to its police force. Suppose we had some! Kate Masterson, a brilliant writer, comments on the things they could do, and Mrs. Siedle, the famous costume designer, plans a uniform for

Here's a Skyscraper Worth Talking About

It will be earthquake-defying It will be magnificent in con struction, and it will be built or the most valuable spot of land in the world.

How She Dreamt of "The Other Woman"

This is the strange story of a eglected wife and how, in her freams, she located her missing susband and the rival in her

The Glorious Climax of a Royal Love Match!

When Princess Ena becomes Queen of Spain the scene will be the most gorgeous in modern history. Even democratic Americans will enjoy reading of it and looking at some "advance" pictures.

The Seaman Who Saved 500 Lives The story of one of Uncle Sam's heroes, who, at his own peril, rescued his shipmates from certain death.

New York's Own Mastodon Coming Home

Odd tale of the wanderings of a prehistoric fossil that i now returning to the city where e has always belonged.

One Day as a Quick-Lunch Waitress.

The trials and tribulations of a "Draw-One" Girl, described by a woman who has been through them.

The "Water Cure" At Home

Margaret Hubbard Ayer gives description of a simple and efficacious treatment.

Bantykin Brothers 'Funny Fairyland'' A screaming new feature and continuation of a big "hit." In the Comic Supplement.

The

"The Rock in the Baltic."

Concluding Instalment of Robert Barr's Great Novel. A Separate Section, Illustrated in Colors.

Next Sunday-First eight-page instalment of a New Novel,

"The Man Between," By Amelia E. Barr.